OUR YOUTH AT MERCY OF FIENDS

FILTHY LITERATURE BREAKING DOWN YOUTH FOR COMMUNISM

Abraham Rubin, arrested in his car with a load of "filthy material."

Edward Mishkin has a long record of arrests for dealing in pornography.

Samuel Roth, admitted to seven arrests and four jail terms for dealing in obscenity.

What is the lowest form of humanity? I have seen some awful cases. I know all about the skunk, and the polecat. My personal experience tells me that the buzzard is about the dirtiest thing on earth. Then we have the sewer rat. But then we have the pornography rat. It's a shame that there is not a law that he can be shot immediately on conviction, for drawing pictures and writing articles and books to entirely corrupt the child's mind to a point that he might as well be a dope fiend. Do you want your child to end up this way?

Your newsstands are full of these dirty 50¢ books—and I mean DIRTY. If your child attends a public school, the chances are that its library has some, or many dirty books. Parents should first investigate—learn the truth—become enraged—then throw the books out of the school, or throw the school board out. You may be surprised to know that school boards—many of them—will defend these books and you will have a fight on your hands.

This is part of the battle between the forces of Christ and of Anti-Christ. This is a plan to so demoralize our people that they will be easily confused and taken over. And at the bottom of all this rotten, demoralizing, anti-Christian propaganda is the Jew.

The number of filthy books written, published and sold today is entirely too great to list. Just one of them is "The Last Temptation of Christ" published by Simon & Schuster. This Jewish house in New York publishes quite a number of dirty books, and has on its board a man who has been identified as a member of the Moscow Spy Ring.

Many parts of the book are too rank for us to give you here. Quoted are only a few of the 487 pages of utter filth, with pages indicated:

"Someone came last night in my sleep," he murmured under his breath . . . 'Surely it was God, God. . . . or was it the devil? Who can tell them apart?"

"... he went to Cana, his mother's village, to choose a wife. His mother had forced him; she wanted to see him married. . . . So there he stood, a red rose in his hand, gazing at the village girls as they danced under a large, newly foliated poplar. And while he looked and weighed one against the other—he wanted them all, but did not have the courage to choose. . . . Descending upon him with her red sandals, unplaited hair . . . was Magdalene, the only daughter of his uncle . . . The young man's mind shook violently. 'It's her I want, her I want!' he cried, and he held out his hand to give her the rose. But as he did so, ten claws nailed themselves into his head and two frenzied wings beat above him, tightly covering his temples. He shrieked and fell down on his face, frothing at the mouth. His unfortunate mother, writhing with shame, had to throw her kerchief over his head, lift him up in her arms, and depart. From that time on he was completely lost. . . ."

"Magdalene lay on her back, stark naked, drenched in sweat, her raven-black hair spread out over the pillow and her arms entwined beneath her head. . . . wrestling with men on this bed since dawn had tired her out. Her hair, nails and every inch of her body exuded smells of all nations, and her arms, neck and breasts were covered with bites . . . The son of Mary lowered his eyes. He had stopped in the middle of the room, unable to go farther. . . ."

"Is this why you mixed yourself in with my lovers, to hoax your way into my house in order to bring God the boogeyman down to me here on my hot bed?"

(Mary Magdalene and Jesus together. Jesus speaks:) "What is it? Speak without fear, Beloved." (Mary M.:) 'If you're in the seventh heaven and a passer-by requests a glass of water of you, descend from the seventh heaven to give it to him. If you are a holy saint and a woman requests a kiss of you, descend from your sanctity in order to give it to her. Otherwise you cannot be saved.'"

"Jesus seized her, threw back her head and kissed her on the mouth. They both turned deadly pale. Their knees gave way. Unable to go further, they lay down under a flowering lemon tree and began to roll on the ground.

"The sun came and stood above them. A breeze blew; several lemon flowers fell on the two naked bodies . . . Now and then a bull could be heard bellowing in the distance, rested now and satiated. A gentle drizzle cooled the two burning bodies and drew out the odor of the soil. Purring, Mary Magdalene hugged the man, kept his body glued to hers."

And further on in this foul book:

(Judas speaking:) . . . "As he faced the cross this fake Messiah went dizzy and fainted. Then the ladies got hold of him and installed him to manufacture children for them." (Addressing Jesus:) "Your duty was to mount the cross—that's what I say! You boast that you conquered death. Woe is you! Is that the way to conquer death—by making children?"

(Jesus speaking:) "I am a traitor, a deserter, a coward," he murmured. "Now I realize it. I'm lost! Yes, yes. I should have been crucified, but I lost my courage and fled. Forgive me, brothers, I cheated you."

We might say that it embarrasses us to print these filthy sentences. But how else can we acquaint you with this corrupting obscenity?

Pursuing a different phase, but still revolting pornography is the book "Brave New World," which is found in our high school and other school libraries, and in some is required reading. The book revolves around the fantastic social behavior so far removed from anything Christianity has known as to be unbelievable of conception by a human being. In "Brave New World" human beings are produced through test tube and incubator in a laboratory known as Central London Hatchery and Conditioning Center in which thousands of embryos, passing along belt lines, are injected with special conditioning and predetermining fluids at the whim of the "planners." In their early childhood these products are encouraged in erotic acts as they play together naked, and are punished for not taking part (page 20). By adulthood they take sexual activities and homosexuality as a matter of course, going to bed with each other being part of the conditioning (page 31). In this New World "everyone belongs to everyone else." To produce the necessary "materials" for the hatcheries the girls spend daily and weekly turns with the male population, often boasting of their endurance. Before going to these erotic sojourns the girls are put through the Malthusian drill to prevent pregnancy (pp. 55, 80). Just what this consists of is left to the imagination. However, we know that Malthus was a population statistician.

—o— Please turn to page 2 —o—

The worst phases of this book have not been touched upon. But isn't the above enough to sicken you?

In "The Sex Cure" there is some good news at the end—in fact, the end of any of these books is pretty good news just by itself. But in this one the publisher has included a special note to us.

"If you've enjoyed this book," the note reads, "we know you will want to read the many others now available for your reading pleasure. They will be as STIMULATING, PULSE-QUICKENING and INVIGORATING a collection of novels as you could run across in a month of SUNDAYS." (emphasis ours!) Then follows a 5-page list of additional titles. Here are some of them:

I Prowl by Night, His Boss's Wife, Girl on a Couch, Passion Island, Sex Pack, The Lash of Lust, Fly Girl, The Zipper Girls, Sin Kin, Sin Teacher, Sin-Damned, Sin Colony, Sin Song, Sin Monsters, Sin Devil, Sin Hellcat, Sin Time, Lust Master, Lust Market, Lust Pad, Lust Grind, Lust Week-end, Lust Pro, Lust Slave, Lust Sniper, etc.

In an Alabama college the required reading in the courses of Advanced Studies and Southern Literature included:

"Sweet Bird of Youth" by Tennessee Williams (Signet publications) Page 54: "Did you have her that early? . . . I was just two years older, we had each other that early."

"God's Little Acre" by Erskine Caldwell (Signet publication) Pages 138, 139: "I didn't know I wanted him to do it before, but after that I was certain. Pa, it makes love so strong nothing can stop it."

Page 45: "That was wonderful, Will," she whispered. "Do it to me again." These sentences are typical of the entire filthy book.

All this and much more is on the newsstands today, awaiting and available to your child.

The vice squad in New York arrested a number of men who were involved deep in pornography. These took the 5th Amendment: Edward Mishkin, Abe Rotto and Abraham Rubin, alias Al Rubin, alias Al "Stoney" Stone.

Edward Mishkin has a long record of arrests for dealing in pornography. Recently the district attorney said he would receive a maximum sentence of 159 years and fines totaling $496,500 if convicted on all counts charged. The first witness was Inspector Roy E. Blick, for 19 years head of the Washington Police vice squad. He said that teen-aged girls in ever-increasing numbers were used as models in acts of perversion for pornographic pictures. In one instance he found a 3½ year old child used as a model for nude pictures.

— GOOD FRIDAY 1963 —

"Pornography is more dangerous than narcotics," said Blick. He told of a raid he led on a Washington dance studio, where they found 197 boys 11 years old and up, waiting to see an obscene movie.

The Philadelphia Inquirer reports the big sale of a filth magazine "Adam," a bimonthly selling for 50¢ an issue. The magazine started in Los Angeles with a 6,000 order and was quickly sold out. The same happened to the second issue. The third was increased to 16,000. This too was sold out in a matter of days and a reorder for additional thousands was made. This reorder had just arrived when the county detectives descended on the place.

In Philadelphia a campaign was started by Mrs. Walter A. Craig, Chairman of the Philadelphia Womens Committee. She stated that pupils subject to the influence of such filth magazines lost interest in class work and their desire for learning. Mrs. Craig said school teachers had reported this to her.

The blue ribbon distributor of filth is Ralph Ginzburg, whose publications use the best slick paper and high-class photographs. A federal grand jury has just returned three indictments against him involving "Documentary Books, Liaison News Letter" and "Eros." Last December he was indicted on 19 counts of mailing obscene advertising. "Eros," issued quarterly through the year, sells for $10 an issue.

If your child picks up an easily obtainable 50¢ smut book, or other pornographic material, this may well be the start of his moral and physical destruction. This activity to demoralize our youth is part of the overall plot to corrupt and control us. Don't be afraid of this subject. Wade into it; and let's knock it out!

WANTED! A Fighting Frontier

We are in the hands of a group of eggheads who never did a day's work in their lives. They have been brainwashed in the colleges, particularly Harvard, and their brains are saturated with teachings from the London School of Economics, through Felix Frankfurter, Harold Laski and, lately, Arthur Schlesinger. It is doubtful that any one of them ever had a fist fight. They don't have the fighting spirit and would rather back down and be humiliated than stand up and defend themselves. They have read Marxist books over and over and over, and they have a compelling desire to be a part of the group to rule this government. They are happy to be advisers to the President, and they love those government checks. The ones that are not Zionist Jews have been so indoctrinated that, like Alger and Donald Hiss, who are not Jews at all, they remind you that Lenin said, "For every communist we have ten others ready and willing to do their work."

So this group has at last landed in Washington, and their ringleader Arthur Schlesinger is in the White House to see that everything is carried out according to the plot. They want to disarm us. Are they crazy? Or is this a part of a diabolical plan that is centuries old? Is this part of the group that 16 Popes forbade Christians to associate with or work for, knowing that they would break down the Christian faith just as they are doing today, both Protestant and Catholic?

Here in the United States—supposed to be the strongest country in the world—our front man to face Khrushchev is a rich man's son who never worked and was indulged and protected through life, with millions at hand. He never distinguished himself for anything, regardless of the books that have been written to show him as a hero in the Pacific. General MacArthur, who was top man at that time, with all of his faculties and wonderful staff of officers, made the statement the next day that Kennedy should be court-martialed for using such poor judgment! Of course that has to be hush-hush today. This is the man we put up against Khrushchev, who almost wore out his fists fighting in the streets, beating up his enemies, and directing the slaughter of over 30 million Christians. All the double-crosses he pulled on Poland, and on Hungary—that is all forgotten, and Kennedy deals with him as though he was an honest man!

Any reasonable, clear thinking person knows that the Soviet Union is working day and night to outstrip us to a point that they can continue to bluff us into more humiliating positions. Khrushchev has told us over and over what he is going to do to us. Why do we show the least respect for this murderer? They move up, or retreat, to deceive our amateurs, when all the time they intend to pull a Pearl Harbor on us at the right time. Our leaders are too dumb to know this.

Forget all about the little arguments and side issues in Cuba. Why did the Soviet Union come clear across the world with hundreds of ships and bring millions of dollars' worth of weapons into Cuba? What were they for? If this government has any know-how or understanding of the enemy's tactics it should watch and pull a Pearl Harbor and try to blow Moscow out of existence. Sure, they will respond immediately and bomb us, and millions of us will die. But they are going to attack us at the time best for them, and more of us will die. This conflict cannot now be avoided. We should say our prayers and ask Our Lord to guide us. But we should also tell Khrushchev off when he bluffs us so many times by telling us we are going to start an atomic war. He is a bluffer, a double-crosser, a liar, a murderer! The government would not deal with Al Capone as they do with Khrushchev, who is immeasurably worse than Capone was.

Our government asked for 20 atomic inspections in the Soviet Union, but the Soviets have whittled us down to two, knowing that they are never going to allow any kind of inspection, any more than Castro will. Don't we have one John L. Lewis to put up against Khrushchev?

Who in our State Department prevented us from tearing down the Berlin Wall the day it was put up? Now that it is reinforced it would take thousands of lives to get it down. And in Cuba, who in our State Department prevented us from slapping Castro down and ending communism in Cuba? Today thousands of our boys will have to die to wipe out Castro.

The Way of a Christian

Jesus said to His Disciples:

"For what doth it profit a man if he gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his own soul?" (Matthew 16:26)

This is the way of Christ and, of course, it applies to each and every one of us as Christians.

The Marxism (communism) of our day points in exactly the opposite direction—to gain the whole world and destroy the soul.

In their defense against Marxism, intelligent and cultured Christian people in Europe tried to protect the Soul and Spirit of the peoples of all Europe. However, their noble aim—to save both the inhabitants of Europe and the whole world—was defeated, as is well-known, by World War II. In describing the results of communism in our time, Dr. R. Swinburne Clymer uses the following significant lines in his book, THE AGE OF TREASON: "fear those who by usurped power have the means to destroy man's manhood, thereby making him incapable of thinking, reasoning and bereft of the power of imagination; no longer a human creature, but a robot or zombie, prevented from fulfilling his Divine destiny by making it impossible to awaken the Soul." In thus reducing the human being to the status of an animal, communism is assured one phase in its success—and that a most important one. Marxism also attempts (through infiltration) dominion over all humanity.

Never before have we seen the like of racial discrimination. Communism has introduced it, and now seeks to mongrelize the races. Through the medium of movies, shows, TV, jazz, etc., we can observe that mongrelization and prostitution are complements of each other.

A perfect example of communist organization will be found in the United Nations, which represents all colors, races, creeds and religions. The U.N. talks "peace," yet at no time in history have there been more small wars and tension among nations. Why? Because the U.N. prefers to "meddle" in the affairs of a given country, rather than to give it true help; it invades a nation with its own military forces without the consent of that nation, and uses the monies of all nations to accomplish its own selfish purposes! UNESCO, one of the mightiest arms of the U.N., has extended its authority and teachings into every classroom in "The West," and within its scope of activities is included the teaching of sex to all little children of the white race. Then we wonder why juvenile delinquency is so rampant! Young girls of 13 are, as a result of all this, becoming prostitutes, either in actuality, or in their minds through the corruption of their moral sense by UNESCO's filthy methods of teaching sex. However, most of the people have been so mesmerized by Liberal, Leftist and Socialist influence that they fail to recognize the true cause of the decadence of the younger generation of today.

Destroy the Spirit and the Race will be killed—destroy the Race and we will be forced to accept Mongrelization and Death. So, you see, the "Peace" of the U.N. is a contradiction in terms and belongs to communism, or the Anti-Christ. But because all

WAS McCARTHY RIGHT?

The poisonous stream of communism which flows out of the Soviet Union is threatening to end freedom and to wreck the world. When we consider the Cuban situation, we realize how close this danger is to us. (Khrushchev has been building fires all over the world to distract our attention from our own security, to encourage us to dissipate our wealth and manpower while he is building up a Russian base 90 miles from Florida.

How and why did Russia get into such a position of power? History has the answer. It was the United States which gave the communists their chance. Thirty years ago, the United States rescued Stalin at the depth of communism's failure to make good as a guiding force in Russia. The method of rescue was the continued and misguided U. S. diplomatic recognition to the Soviet regime.

We had ample warning from the communist leaders themselves that our original policy of non-recognition was born of wisdom. In 1922, Lenin said, "The eternal in the Russian revolution is the fact that it is the beginning of the world revolution." Trotsky was even more explicit when he said "Revolution is coming in Europe as well as in America, systematically, step by step, stubbornly and with gnashing of teeth in both camps. It will be long protracted, cruel, and bloody." Our Secretary of State remarked at the time, "There should be no encouragement to those efforts of the Soviet authorities to visit upon other peoples the disasters that have overwhelmed the Russian people."

All these statements were made in 1922. Not long after, in 1924, Lenin died. His regime was a failure, marked by murder and destruction. The new ruler Stalin was a master at wrecking other people's hopes and aims. Also like Lenin, he was not able to formulate an orderly government of his own. He could only kill and destroy. In the winter of 1930, his way of handling rebellious peasants was to exterminate them, and Khrushchev was his lieutenant. Approximately 12 million Russians were starved to death because they objected to giving their cows, pigs, and plots of land to the government.

The Russian government desperately needed prestige. Lacking it in Europe, they searched elsewhere, and we were the suckers. Maxim Litvinov, the Russian foreign minister, a very crafty operator, promised that Russia would pay its long-standing debts owed to America since Czarist times. We still had not learned our lesson—and Communism stayed alive in Russia because of our official recognition of the Soviet government. Thanks to our Lend-Lease program, Stalin managed to separate the U. S. from $11 billion in war supplies, machinery, transportation equipment, raw materials, foodstuff—anything which would bolster the sagging Russian economy. Stalin was quick to accept the support of the despised, capitalistic United States. The United Nations was the vehicle by which Russia gained further diplomatic recognition.

peoples will be subdued and blinded by this "peace" propaganda, they will come to worship the Anti-Christ, believing him to be the real Christ!

Our culture is fast becoming so decadent that we now have developed the "Cult of the Ugly" (best exemplified in the Arts), whereby we are ever so gradually introduced to Mongrelization. Juvenile crime and sex teaching will always go hand in hand, and this fact was especially noted after the victory of communism in 1945. At the present time, the United States leads all countries in juvenile delinquency, and this condition is continuing to grow at an alarming rate! Police cannot name one section of the Criminal Code with which American Youth—boy and girl alike—is not familiar; the murder of parents and of brothers and sisters, as well as all types of sex murders, the committing of robberies, hold-ups, ordinary kidnappings and dope smuggling, etc.—all are most commonplace today!

"Pilate Tried To Save Jesus"

MYSTERIOUS DOCUMENT

London Jewish Chronicle, Feb. 8, 1963

An ancient document suggesting that Pontius Pilate strove desperately to save Jesus's life but was prevented from doing so by the fury of the Jews has been discovered in Liverpool, and the Vatican has stated that it may be historically correct.

ognition. In order to be a member of the UN, all the countries of the non-Axis world were forced to declare war and to recognize the Allied Powers. Russia was an Allied Power.

When World War II ended, the communists held 7% of the world's people in slavery. Now they enslave at least 35% of the people of the world, and dominate 25% of the earth's surface. These victories have been won by espionage, incitement to revolt, and internal subversion.

To understand all that has happened, one must understand the full extent of the assistance given Soviet Russia during the last days of the war, when Allied forces were deliberately held back so that Russian forces could enter Berlin first. Thus Russia grabbed most of the industrial power of Germany. Whole factories were dismantled and shipped to Russia, although this was in violation of the agreement among the allies that all armament factories would be destroyed. At the Yalta Conference, Stalin asked for and later received about 80% of Germany's industrial might as "reparations."

German scientists who tried desperately to surrender during the last days of the war were refused. The majority were purposely permitted to fall into Soviet hands, thus allowing the communists to gain the space development plans worked out by the German scientists for manned rockets, satellites and space stations. This one mistake has and will continue to cost billions of dollars in tax money, in the race for space, not counting the fear of total atomic destruction we have lived with for years, and are saddling on to our children and grandchildren.

The United States cannot escape responsibility for turning over Central Europe to the Soviet Union. And Americans cannot shut their eyes to the fact that the Castro takeover of Cuba was aided and abetted by persons inside our own government.

Today, almost 30 years after official U. S. recognition of Communist Russia, we are faced with this fact:

Despite the high hopes we held during the time of our positive action in the Cuban crisis, all the communists have to do to achieve final victory over freedom is to continue on the same course they have taken in the past. All we have poured out to the nations of the world cannot protect us. Russia can't be bought off. Unless we adopt a new attitude, and employ new tactics to save freedom, Khrushchev's promise to bury us, repeated again last week, will come true. Now the United Nations proposes to send a delegation to make a study of the agricultural prospects of Cuba, with the view to assisting them to be self supporting. We are the main contributors to the UN. Unless there is a change, Russia, Red China, and Cuba will collaborate to throw a shovelful of dirt on the grave of the capitalist free enterprise system.

But some Christian theologians in this country think that it will do nothing to increase anti-Semitism and that, in that respect, it is not to be taken seriously.

The document purports to be a translation of a letter from Pilate to the Emperor Tiberias, in which Pilate declared he was desperate to save the life of Jesus and sent for 2,000 reinforcements, which did not arrive till the day after the crucifixion. He also stated that, after the resurrection, he questioned the officer in charge of the grave, who said that it was not true that the guards had fallen asleep or that the body had been stolen.

Vatican View

According to the Vatican authorities who examined it, the document is apocryphal, having been written probably in the fourth or fifth century. But it may contain historically correct facts because it was written soon after the events described. The document is now being studied by historians at Liverpool University.

A spokesman at the Archbishop's House told me that he did not think the document, even if published, would in any way propagate anti-Semitism.

The Rev. W. W. Simpson, General Secretary of the Council of Christians and Jews, said that the document did not add anything to the facts known about Pilate.

KEEP ON WRITING KEEP ON FIGHTING

(Public Action, 131 E. 69th St., New York)

President Kennedy sent his last-year's medicare Bill out to be patched up for another try in Congress and the thing looks worse than ever. This year it is called the Hospital Insurance Act of 1963, identical bills introduced by Sen. Clinton Anderson (D.N.M.), S880, and Rep. Cecil King, (D. Cal.) HR 3920. There's not much new but the label, except that this King-Anderson bill would give federal medical aid to everyone over 65, not just to those on social security, and, as before, to rich and poor alike, whether they need it or want it. The cost would be 9.8 billions paid for by our taxes plus ever higher social security rates.

"The issue before us," says Sen. Carl Curtis (R. Neb.), "is not merely one legislative proposal, it is the choosing of the road to socialism."

We, who believe in the American way, in self-reliance, in freedom of choice, and in the free enterprise system, must write again to our Congressman and Senators, to help save this country from the Administration's persistent drive to ruin our present voluntary wide medical coverage, in its march to a socialist state.

Fighting Author takes the mask off the Anti-Defamation League!

The author takes the GOYIM (stupid Christians) and the ADL to task for the recent series of "AWARD" dinners and the phony idea of "BROTHERHOOD." The BLACKMAIL activities of this diabolical group are exposed.

Marilyn Allen quotes top authorities known for their documentation on the criminal character of the ADL. Here are a few.

Morris A. Bealle: (On Dore Schary, president of the ADL). "He was exposed by the House Committee as the most contemptuous and un-American of the 317 rotten apples in the Hollywood colony . . . . He admitted before the House Committee that he gave communists preference in jobs and arrogantly told the Committee he would hire 'any communist he damn pleased.'"

Myron C. Fagan: "The ADL is a cabal of sinister individuals whose aim is the communist enslavement of America."

Robert H. Williams: "The ADL, the Zionist and the communist program are inseparable. They are one and the same thing."

Too much Government

"I place economy among the first and most important virtues, and public debt as the greatest danger to be feared. To preserve our independence, we must not let our rulers load us with perpetual debt. We must make our election between economy and liberty or profusion and servitude. If we run into such debts, we must be taxed in our meat and drink, in our necessities and our comforts, in our labors and our amusements. If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people, under the pretense of caring for them, they must become happy.

The Birth of Communism

By J. Johnston McCauley

The subversive activities of the American Socialist, Eugene V. Debs, before he was sent to the Federal prison in Atlanta, and the actions of other Socialists during World War I, brought a stigma for a short time to the word "Socialist." Consequently, the pinko-elite educators who had attached themselves to the Socialist Society decided, at the suggestion of Jane Addams (Hull House, Chicago), one of its leaders, to change the name to the "League for Industrial Democracy." It was then announced that this new organization is a membership society engaged in education toward a "new social order" based upon production for use and not for profit. This was, of course, the same kind of State Socialism that the Marxists are striving for. It was after the abolition of the Intercollegiate Socialist Society in 1921 that the most aggressive and effective work was done in "boring in" on our educational system. All of this is tremendously important because it was the Socialist leaders in and around the League for Industrial Democracy who, more than any others, laid the groundwork for Roosevelt's "New Deal."

Karl Marx was not the originator of the theory: production for use and not for profit. He created the Communist Party upon the ruins of another earlier revolutionary movement known as "Illuminism." It was founded in 1776 by Adam Weishaupt, a professor of canon law at the University of Ingolstadt, in Bavaria. The basic principles of Illuminism and Marxism have been hatred of God and all ecclesiastical institutions, abolition of private property and inheritance, destruction of all existing order, fomentation of class-hatred, propaganda to cause riots, strikes and turmoil, and dictatorship of the proletariat (the common people). Both of these 'isms are based on the theme that all history has been a conflict of classes and that the exploited and oppressed classes (the proletariat) can only obtain emancipation from the exploiting and ruling classes (the bourgeoisie) by emancipating society at large from all exploitation, oppression, class distinctions and class struggles; this soon became an international revolutionary movement. The "First International" was founded by Karl Marx in 1864 and lasted until 1872, when the defeat of the Paris uprising (failure of the Paris Commune) spelled the temporary doom of the "International." The "Second International" was in existence from 1889 until 1914 when, according to Lenin (in a speech recorded for the gramophone, March 1919) World War I, caused the Socialists in each country to betray the workers and side, in the main, with their governments. Said Lenin: "Throughout the world a turn to revolutionary struggle has begun. The war has shown the doom of Capitalism. A new order is taking place. The traitors to Socialism have disgraced the old word 'Socialism.' Now the workers who have remained faithful to the cause of the overthrow of the yoke of capital call themselves Communists. Throughout the world the Union of Communists is growing. It will not be long before we see the victory of Communism throughout the world, the foundation of the World Republic of Soviets."
